History

Switzerland became a member of the International Ice Hockey Federation on November 23, 1908

Switzerland played its first game in 1977 against the Soviet Union during the 1978 World Junior Championships.

Switzerland lost the game 1–18 and finished last in the tournament and were relegated to the Pool B tournament for the following year.

After winning the 1979 Pool B tournament of the 1979 World Junior Championships they were promoted back to the top Pool A championship. During the 1980 World Junior Championships Switzerland suffered their worst defeat in international participation after being beaten by Finland 1-19. Switzerland went on to finish last in the tournament and were relegated back to Pool B for the following year. Switzerland continued to move between the top division and the Pool B tournament.

During the Pool B tournament of the 1985 World Junior Championships Switzerland achieved their largest win in international participation when they defeated Austria 20-7. In 1998 Switzerland won their first medal at the World U20 Championships after finishing in third by defeating the Czech Republic in the bronze medal game. In 2008 Switzerland finished ninth and were relegated to Division I for the following year. This was the first time in a lower division since competing in the 1995 Pool B Tournament.

Switzerland returned to the top division for 2010 after winning their 2009 Division I Group A Tournament.
